Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V., Hechtstraße 17, 01097 Dresden

Job advertisement

Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V. - JKPeV based in Dresden, Germany is an association engaged in the arts, culture and education on a local and European level. Our goal is to implement projects that foster diversity and inclusion and promote active participation and civic engagement. The association is dedicated to coaching volunteers and professionals in youth and cultural work across Europe, thereby strengthening interdisciplinary and transnational cooperation. To achieve this goal, we design and coordinate training courses, seminars, conferences and events in the fields of adult education and youth work, inclusion and integration, entrepreneurship and sustainability, civic participation and volunteering. We use digital media, different art forms, non-formal learning methods and intercultural exchange as tools to develop soft skills and professional skills of young people and adults involved, to stimulate their entrepreneurial spirit and creativity, but also to enrich the cultural life of the city of Dresden and to promote diversity. We also focus on the Europe-wide exchange of experiences and knowledge regarding the history and future of Europe. With our work, the Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V. team strive to promote and actively shape a common Europe. In our modern and cosy space, we host an art gallery, the Full Moon Gallery with monthly art exhibitions as well as run music and literature evenings.

For the further development of our association we are looking for a

Project Manager for Intercultural Education Projects (f/m/d)

with a workload between 35-40 hours per week

In this position you will implement European projects mainly in close coordination with the board of the association assuring quality and innovation and having a social impact. You will support the further development of the association in line with its goals.

- Initiative to discuss, design and develop together with the JKPeV team innovative projects
- A salary commensurate with the professional experience as well as flexible vacation planning

The place of work is mainly Dresden. Right now Home Office is as well possible.

Would you like to implement projects in a competent and dynamic environment together with our project partners on a national and international level? Can you work in a goal-oriented and self-initiated manner while breaking new ground in the European scene? Do you aim to have a social impact on the local community as well as on national and European level?

If so, we look forward to receiving your application (letter of motivation, CV, certificates of work and education, references) including your salary expectations exclusively by e-mail with the subject "Project Manager for Intercultural Education Projects" to: info@jkpev.de. Please include all documents in one PDF. The size of the PDF should not exceed 8 MB.

If you have any questions about the association, please contact JKPeV's Director, Stefan Kiehne: kiehne@jkpev.de Interviews will take place promptly after receipt of application via Skype. Costs incurred as part of the application process cannot be reimbursed.
