Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V., Hechtstraße 17, 01097 Dresden

Job offer

Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V. has been working successfully in the fields of art, culture and education at European and local level for over 10 years. The aim is to implement projects that enable diversity and inclusion and promote active participation and civic engagement. The association's international team is also dedicated to coaching professionals and volunteers in youth and adult education as well as in cultural work across Europe, thereby strengthening interdisciplinary and transnational cooperation. To achieve this goal, the staff design and coordinate training courses, seminars, conferences and events in the fields of digital education, inclusion and integration, entrepreneurship and sustainability, civic participation and volunteering. They use different art forms, non-formal learning methods and intercultural exchange as approaches to develop soft skills and professional skills of the participants, to stimulate their entrepreneurial spirit and creativity, but also to enrich the cultural life of the city of Dresden and to promote diversity. Another focus is on a Europe-wide exchange of experiences and a joint examination of the history and future of Europe.

With their work, the team members of the Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V. want to promote and actively shape a united Europe. The association supports artists and runs an art gallery (Full Moon Gallery) and also organises music and literature evenings in the specially developed Kultur Centrale.

For the further development of our association we are looking for a

Manager for EU-Projects (f/m/d)

in a full time position

In this position you will coordinate activities and projects in close cooperation with the management of the association. You will be responsible for project and team management for EU-funded cooperation projects with a duration of two to three years and partner institutions in several European countries. The projects focus on development of educational concepts including workshop curricula, learning platforms with associated apps, educational materials such as manuals, video tutorials and online tools.

Another work field is the implementation of educational and multiplier events such as workshops, conferences, citizens' meetings and festivals.

On top of that, you use your project management know-how to ensure smooth administrative processing and financial control of the projects. You will use project management tools and ensure that all project participants are involved and that deadlines and obligations towards funding bodies are met.
