Online Action for Youth and the creative and Cultural Sectors

Project Reference: 2020-1-DE04-KA227-YOU-020835

The Project's Aim

The project's main aim is to reinforce cross-sectoral cooperation with a focus on creativity, cultural awareness, active participation of youth in the society and to support youth workers, artists, and policymakers to find creative and innovative solutions to the new challenges that the Covid-19 crisis has brought. The project targets youth organizations, active in the field of arts and culture, training institutions and local authorities in Cyprus, Germany, Greece and Italy.

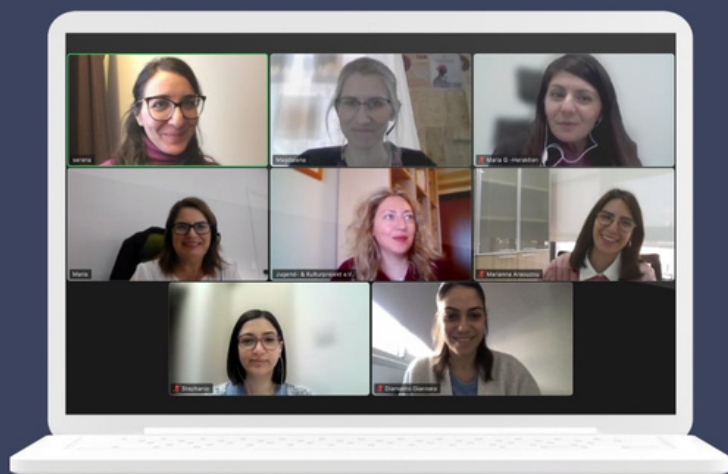

For successfully delivering the project outputs, the partners worked closely with stakeholders in Germany, Greece, Cyprus and Italy such as representatives of Municipalities, cultural organisations, CCSs, youth centres, to ensure that the content is relevant and interesting to the stakeholders of the project.

Since the partnership strongly believes that the project's outputs will benefit young people, cultural organisations, policy makers and other relevant stakeholders, the aim is to disseminate the outputs as much as possible through dissemination events (multiplier events) and social media accounts of the project.

So far, the partners of the project have successfully delivered the first output of the project, the #BuildingBetterWebinar, a series of asynchronous trainings that provide local policy makers, youth workers and artists, representatives of the CCSs with knowledge and skills on how to face challenges, share ideas and practices and find opportunities to work together on collective resources in order to culturally engage youth to participate in the age of social distancing.

Currently, the partners are working to finalize the second output of the project, the Portal of Cooperation, an online participatory space and platform where local policymakers, youth workers and practitioners working in the youth work field, advice and counseling services, as well as young people and artists can enter and get information on how they can be more active and involved in cultural and creative activities with the aim of facing a variety of challenges arising from the coronavirus crisis.

1. Webinar

Partners under the coordination of Jugend- & Kulturprojekt e.V. developed the content of the 4 Modules of the Webinar:

1. Personal well-being and arts participation (JKPeV)
2. Tools and Innovative Practices (Anelixis)
3. Ways of supporting young people (iparticipate)
4. Going Digital (Eurosucces)

It is an asynchronous webinar that provides local policy makers, youth workers, educators and artists that work with young people as well as representatives of the Cultural & Creative sectors with knowledge and skills on how to face challenges, share ideas and practices and find opportunities to work together on collective resources in order to culturally engage youth to participate in the age of social distancing.

2. Portal of Cooperation

The portal is an online participatory space and platform where local policymakers, youth workers and practitioners working in the youth work field, advice and counseling services, CCSs and the arts, can acquire information on how they can become more active and support young people and young people with fewer opportunities to face a variety of challenges. The Portal of Cooperation consists of 5 groups: A) Cultural Information, B) Events & Activities, C) Tools and Methods for the Support and Outreach of young people, D) Learning Resources and Materials, E) Organisations. Furthermore, registered users can submit and share their initiatives, tools, resources and materials, information about the organisation they represent including their events and activities for the support and the active involvement of young people in CCSs, the arts and the youth sector. Cultural, art, creative and youth organisations are mapped and short info about each organisations will be provided.

Multiplier Events in May 23'

The 6 multiplier events called "Building Better Awareness Seminar on cross-sectoral online cooperation for creativity, culture, and youth" will be implemented in Germany, Greece, Italy and Cyprus. 180 youth workers, representatives from the CCSs and policy makers will be invited to participate in these events with the aim of learning more about the "Building Better" project, the Webinar and the Online Portal of Cooperation. These events will specifically focus on engaging project's target groups with the further dissemination and exploitation of the project's results with the ultimate aim of involving more actively young people and young people with fewer opportunities in cultural, art and creative activities.

TPM in Florence, Italy in May '23

Sharing Europe is hosting the fourth and final Transnational Project Meeting in Florence, Italy between 24-25 May 2023. The purpose of the final partners' meeting is to discuss the final steps of the project implementation and more precisely, the quality and impact of the project and its results, the promotion and further exploitation of the project results as well as the project's sustainability after the project's closure. The Partners will finalize all core issues like dissemination, quality assurance and impact assessment. The project partners will discuss the preparation and drafting of the final report and the financial report of the project. Partners will also discuss the possibility for following-up the Building Better project in order to maximise its impact.
